A Princess remembers - Gayatri Devi I recommend this memoir for its courageous woman on woman battle in India - the largest democracy on earth - with discomfiting examples of the 'diplomatic' tool of choice - the cut - the slight. We are riding elephants chasing tigers led by a young girl who shot her first panther aged 12.

Mariah would offer several more thoughts about the princess in the memoir she announced in late 2019. The diva told Variety that she found the experience of writing her life story “cathartic” and that it would candidly address both professional and personal experiences including her supposed breakdown. And fans weren’t left disappointed when the book hit the shelves in July 2020.
