The Oath Forger series has been such a great read, I can't believe it's already over. I fell in love with the series from the first book and can't help but wish it would continue! Book 5 was the perfect ending, and even though it resolved everything and gave a satisfying ending for Ava and her Kreks, I still want more!

Lots of stuff happened in this book and I can't wait to see how it all plays out in book 4 In this book, Ava grows closer to her kreks, Uthan and Koah the most, and finally accepts one of the men. She also has to deal with someone trying to make her leave, confronting the committee of Senators and convincing them she is the Oath Forger, and discovering her own powers.

Oath Forger 3 (Oath Forger, #3) by Nia Mars

Very interesting start to the series. The concept of different galaxies is intriguing as is the history of the Kreks and the Oath Forger. This was not a long read, quite short actually - I between a serial and standard novel - so hopefully there is more character development for the Kreks in the next book.

I'm a scavenger. So what? With society's collapse on Earth, I do what I have to for survival. Especially after I'm kidnapped by space pirates. I have no idea why the five most powerful rulers in the universe decide that I'm the Oath Forger, the one foretold to fuse their royal houses together and bring peace. But I'm going to play along. Because, hey, it's better than probes in uncomfortable places. Now let's just hope they don't find out I'm lying.

Imagine four schoolteachers in a romantic thriller. At her twin brother's funeral, Lily touches his casket, whispering a Scottish blood oath: "If your killers were from the Diabhal, then they should know that I'll be a Deamhan and will pursue them until your soul is avenged." A middle school science teacher, Lily involves three teacher colleagues to help her avenge the murder. They risk all in their pursuit, hitting dead ends while confronting the police, the FBI, local mobsters, and even the CIA. Their illusive target is Zakov, a legendary assassin for the Russian Mafiya who has more than 200 kills. They accept help from unsavory characters, seeking anyone to take on Zakov. Can Lily find justice? Will a new love help or hinder her quest? Can the teachers write a lesson plan to overcome the ruthless killer? Will Lily find intimacy and redemption on her journey?

The "Oath of a free man" was originally printed by Stephen Daye (1611-1688) on his own press, believed to be the first to be established in America, in 1639, in Boston, Mass. No copies have been discovered to have survived, and numerous forgeries and facsimiles have been attempted over the centuries.

Goodnight, Sweet Prince Mystery surrounds the death of Queen Victoria's grandson England, 1892. Victoria, Queen and Empress, is in the 54th year of her reign, when her grandson Prince Eddy, eldest son of the Prince of Wales, is found slaughtered in his bed at Sandringham. Terrified of more royal scandal, the Prince of Wales and his spindoctors decide to cover up the facts and the murder is disguised as death by influenza. Lord Francis Powerscourt, an Irish investigator, is privately asked to find the killer. His quest takes him on a journey through the prince's debauched and dissolute past, across Europe to the misty waterways of Venice where, amidst scandal and suicide, Powerscourt finally unravels the mystery of the sweet prince's last goodnight. Death and the Jubilee The discovery of a headless corpse jeopardises Queen Victoria's glittering Diamond Jubilee! In this second Lord Francis Powerscourt mystery, London is preparing for the 1897 Diamond Jubilee. But one morning a man's corpse with no head or hands is dragged out of the Thames. He is old, but not destitute. With no clues to his identity, the police ask for Powerscourt's assistance. His investigation leads to a mysterious mansion in Oxfordshire, with classical temples in the gardens and in the house a second corpse, killed in a fire. On the track of the murderer, Powerscourt soon realises that both he and his family are in great danger - and so is the Queen's Jubilee . . . Death of an Old Master In May 1901 the Salisbury Galleries announce the biggest exhibition of the Old Master Paintings ever seen in Europe. Excitement is intense. But before it opens, one of Britain's leading art experts, Christopher Montague, is found murdered in his study. When Lord Francis Powerscourt is called in to investigate he finds every book, notepad and scrap of paper has been removed from the scene of the crime. Montague had been working on something that would have rocked the art world. Did his article that claimed a number of the Old Masters had been painted recently by a single hand have anything to do with his death? Powerscourt embarks on an odyssey through a treacherous world of art dealers and picture restorers in pursuit of a master forger. He travels to Sicily where the trail goes cold, but, after the thrills and danger of that wild, lawless island, in a remote corner of England, the truth is finally revealed. Death of a Chancellor Compton Minster is preparing to celebrate a very special anniversary in the year 1901 - a thousand years of Christian worship. But a few weeks before the main ceremonies, a high official of the cathedral, the chancellor, dies in mysterious circumstances, and no one except the doctor and the undertaker is allowed to view the corpse. It then transpires that the chancellor was one of England's richest men. When his sister suspects foul play, Lord Francis Powerscourt is asked to investigate. As Powerscourt paces the ancient cloisters and listens to evensong from the choir stalls, he begins to suspect that a terrible secret lies hidden in the cathedral, one that may have something to do with the anniversary. Then a chorister is strangled, his body found turning on the great spit in the Vicars Hall kitchen. Powerscourt himself escapes death by a whisker, as does his wife, Lady Lucy, before he uncovers the astonishing secret of Compton Minster and unmask a murderer.
