Peter Duchene is the main character in The Magician's Elephant. He is a caring, curious, sweet, loving, intelligent, ten-year-old boy. He is a soldier in training, although it is not what he really wants. However, he has no choice. His guardian Vilna Lutz holds the power, and apparently decides who Peter is and isn't.

Characters - The Magician's Elephant

Jennie was an 8 foot tall, 6,000 pound Asian elephant and when Houdini brought her onto the stage she would raise her trunk as though she were saying hello to the audience, and then she would walk into a box on wheels - and disappear. Who taught Houdini how to do this magic trick? And how did Houdini do it? First the who. In the early part of the 1900's, a man named Charles Morrilt (1860-1936), sold and taught Houdini the basic principles of this illusion.
