Comprehensive Teacher's Edition

California Treasures is a research-based reading and language arts program for Grades K-6 that: builds a lifelong love of reading through explicit systematic instruction coupled with time-honored classics, contemporary nonfiction, and rich literature; addresses the four key aspects of language arts every day: listening, speaking, reading, and writing; integrates print resources with digital resources providing teachers with options for teaching styles; offers an equitable parallel Spanish program, California Tesoros de lectura; follows California's revised English language development standards by incorporating the required English language support into the program and providing a complete English language development component to assist students transitioning into English.

Comprehensive Teacher's Edition

This comprehensive Teacher's Editions includes resources needed to plan, manage and implement the program. Supports all areas of reading and language arts for both whole-group and small-group instruction Includes research-based explicit and systematic instruction. Provides built-in features to support the teacher with classroom management

Reproduction of the original: For Treasure Bound by Harry Collingwood

Some of the biggest treasures are small objects saved away in a secret box.

Dedicated to creating effective communicators through a careful balance of grammar and writing, this series helps students obtain the skills instrumental to personal expression.

A young woman purchases four unique Christmas ornaments that have a sentimental meaning only to her. Follow her and these four lovable characters over a span of seventy years. Listen as their life of joy turns into hardship and loneliness, only to be recovered by a young artist in the twentieth century.
